3 AMATURE RADIO BREAKFAST LA PINE JUNE 2 2013

LEFT, BOTTOM TO TOP: JUNE, CREAGH KA7QAV, TIM KE7TMS, CONNIE N7RBH, EVIE ( missed her call), CLIFF NC7CH. ON THE OTHER SIDE, BOTTOM TO TOP; CURTIS KY7OR, JIM WA7TYD, CLIFF, WB7PSE, SUE KA6SOC, BILL OM, JIM KF7FKL. Connie, N7RBH, and myself, ND7V Fred, were in La Pine to watch our granddaughter compete in the Oregon State Finals where she run the 800 meter run for her school in Clatskanie. Sierra, our granddaughter, is 13 years old; she had won the 800-meter dash for her district. This State event took place at the La Pine High School on Sat. June 1. Connie and I came to the La Pine State Park on Friday, where we stayed in our travel trailer. The event started at 6 am with breakfast at Gordy's restaurant, and we did not get back to our camp trailer until after 3 pm. Sierra Bechdoldt, our granddaughter, came in 3rd in the run. She was in first place until about the last one hundred yards, when two other girls over took her. This was a girl's event only that she ran in, but boys were running in similar events. We are very proud of our granddaughter.

While in the area, we contacted Jim, W7TYD, on two meters. Jim informed us of the breakfast on Sunday at 7 AM at Gordy's in La Pine. He invited us to attend, so we did. We had a nice visit with the folks pictured above. Later in the day, we investigated some of the country there about; we enjoyed a visit at Paullina Lake. We came home on Monday. (ed)
